

Welcome to Claus Ellegaard

Birn + Partners are happy to announce that we have added a new Executive Consultant to our Danish team. Claus Ellegaard will be located in our office in Odense from where he will support our business expand the local activities.

Claus is a true networker and he brings a vast C-level network to our business and clients. He excels at visualizing people's needs and match them with the competences of others in his network. The value he adds to the market has been developed through a solid commercial understanding derived from a variety of leadership positions within Sales & HR in a large multinational corporation. Furthermore, he has been recruiting to and driving multiple business networks for top executives in Denmark for several years.

He is a happy person whose positive attitude always contributes with the ability to see opportunities and solutions to the most complex issues.
